

Conference Program

Friday 16 August 2024
08:00-17:00	Registration open
09:00-09:15	Conference open Conference organising committee representatives
09:15-10:30	Strengthening our psychiatry workforce: A focus on the future through the lens of doctors' health Margaret Kay
10:30-11:00	Morning tea
11:00-11:45	Managed care organisations want to fund your private practice. Are you ready? Nathan Jacobs
11:45-12:30	Research in private practice Gary Galambos
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-14:15	Chronic pain management: What every clinician needs to know of chronic pain Nagesh Pai
14:15-15:00	The challenge of ADHD in people who use drugs Di Grocott and Ed Ogden
15:00-15:30	Afternoon tea
15:30-15:45	Collaborative care in perinatal psychiatry –where does NSW’s first public mother-baby unit fit Sylvia Lim-Gibson
15:45-16:00	The Mental Health GP Model: Bridging the gaps in the system Terry Lim
16:00- 16:15	One year later - early reflections from a publicly funded women's subacute voluntary mental health unit in Australia Karishma Kulkarni
16:15-16:30	A qualitative and reflective analysis of a nine-year telehealth psychiatric service Shaun Tampiyappa
16:30-18:30	Welcome reception

Saturday 17 August 2024

08:00-09:00	Registration
09:15-10:30	Demonising Dexamfetamine- is ADHD respectable yet? Roger Paterson
10:30-11:00	Morning tea
11:00-11:45	Advancing psychiatry practice: The RANZCP's CPD program Richard Harvey
11:45-12:30	Challenges in assessment and management of ADHD co-occurring with ASD Soumya Basu
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-14:15	Mayhem & misery in ADHD - A clinician's perspective Dave Chapman
14:15-15:00	From pulses to potentials: foundations and future of neurostimulation Suneel Chamoli
15:00-15:30	Afternoon tea
15:30-16:30	ADHD coaching Andreas Amentas & Brooke Fogarty
16:30-17:00	Members forum
18:45-22:00	Conference dinner Double Bay, Commuter Wharf

Sunday 18 August

08:30-09:00	Registration
09:00-10:15	Ketamine program for treatment resistant PTSD with implications for the private sector Alexander Lim
10:15-10:45	Morning tea
10:45-11:30	Emergency department medicine David Crompton and Balaji Motamarri
11:30-12:30	Panel discussion: Inpatient private psychiatry and impacts on public sector Michelle Atchison, Gary Galambos & Angelo Virgona
12:30-13:30	Lunch and departures